Humans of New York meets Porn for Women in this collection of candid photos, clever captions, and hilarious hashtags about one of the most important subjects of our time: hot dudes reading. Based on the viral Instagram account of the same name, Hot Dudes Reading takes its readers on a ride through all five boroughs of New York City, with each section covering a different subway line. Using their expert photography skills (covert iPhone shots) and journalistic ethics (#NoKindles), the authors capture the most beautiful bibliophiles in all of New York!and take a few detours to interview some of the most popular hot dudes from the early days of the Instagram account. Fun, irreverent, and wittily-observed, this book is tailor-made for book lovers in search of their own happy endings!and those who just want to get lost between the covers for a while.

The (Irresistible) New York Times bestseller that 'features heartwarming stories of interspecies love and adorable photographs!' (The New York Times Book Review). Written by National Geographic magazine writer Jennifer Holland, Unlikely Friendships documents one heartwarming tale after another of animals who, with nothing else in common, bond in the most unexpected ways. A cat and a bird. A mare and a fawn. An elephant and a sheep. A snake and a hamster. The well-documented stories of Koko the gorilla and All Ball the kitten; and the hippo Owen and the tortoise Mzee. And almost inexplicable stories of predators befriending prey:an Indian leopard slips into a village every night to sleep with a calf. A lioness mothers a baby oryx. Holland narrates the details and arc of each story, and offers insights into why!how the young leopard, probably motherless, sought maternal comfort with the calf, and how a baby oryx inspired the same mothering instinct in the lioness. Or, in the story of Cashew, the lab mix that was losing his eyesight, and Libby, the stray cat who began to guide the dog's way through the house and yard. With Libby, Cashew lived out his last few years with loving support and a lasting friendship. These are the most amazing friendships between species, collected from around the world and documented in a selection of full-color candid photographs. ¶The feel-good book of the summer!maybe the year!may very well be Unlikely Friendships.¶¶USA Today ¶With aww-inducing photographs, the book highlights the most improbable animal connections.¶¶National Geographic

Can a cat be an accessory to a prison break? (It can.) Would your precious pet turn violent? Yes--a couple in Seattle had to call the police to save them from their ferocious feline. From cat burglars to terrorizing tabbies, meet the funniest furry felons in the Purrflitzer Prize-winning Cats Gone Bad. Each spread features a photograph or photomontage of an erring kitty.

2018 Christian Book Award® This Journey Is as Perennial as the Seasons GraceLaced is about more than pretty florals and fanciful brushwork!it's about flourishing. With carefully crafted intention, this beautiful volume of 32 seasonal devotions from artist and author Ruth Chou Simons encourages readers in any circumstance to become deeply rooted in God's faithful promises. GraceLaced extends a soul-stirring invitation to draw close to God while... resting in who He is rehearsing the truth He says about you responding in faith to those truths remembering His provision to sustain you, time and time again More than 800 individual pieces of art came together in the crafting of this book, including dozens of new, hand-painted Scripture vignettes that Ruth is known for. Who we are and who God is never changes, even though everything else rarely stays the same. Let this book point you to truth as you journey through the changing seasons of your heart.

"At 32, artist and climber Jeremy Collins found himself 'somewhere between college and mortgage,' and recognized within a profound need for transformation. Inspired in part by his intrepid friend Jonny Copp, who had died tragically in an avalanche, Jeremy resolved to travel in the four cardinal directions - north, south, east and west - to challenge himself in first ascents, and to explore a balance between the pursuit of wilderness adventure and the necessity of home ... [This] is a rich, textured and soulful visual exploration of summits lost and achieved. Although climbing is Jeremy's catalyst, the more fully realized approach to life he discovers will resonate with anyone who has ever looked out an office window and asked, "What else is there?"--Publisher's description.

It takes a lot to be an "amazing lady" but--fortunately for us all--they exist in many walks of life. These remarkable women endear themselves to us in dozens of ways, and they bless us with all the beautiful things they generously bring to our daily lives. Those who are lucky enough to have an amazing lady in their life will know exactly who this book is for. Her name and face will come to mind as soon as they read the title and hold the book in their hands. This is a golden opportunity for them to share the message, express the thanks, and inspire a wealth of smiles... all with one exquisite book--lovingly given--to a very amazing lady.

One of the Best Books of the Year: NPR, Q&A, Billboard, JazzTimes In jazz parlance, 'playing changes' refers to an improviser's resourceful path through a chord progression. In this definitive guide to the jazz of our time, leading critic Nate Chinen boldly expands on that idea, taking us through the key changes, concepts, events, and people that have shaped jazz since the turn of the century!from Wayne Shorter and Henry Threadgill to Kamasi Washington and Esperanza Spalding; from the phrase 'America's classical music' to an explosion of new ideas and approaches; from claims of jazz's demise to the living, breathing scene that exerts influence on mass culture, hip-hop, and R&B. Grounded in authority and brimming with style, packed with essential album lists and listening recommendations, Playing Changes takes the measure of this exhilarating moment!and the shimmering possibilities to come.

New York Times Bestseller Over 2.5 million copies sold For David Goggins, childhood was a nightmare - poverty, prejudice, and physical abuse colored his days and haunted his nights. But through self-discipline, mental toughness, and hard work, Goggins transformed himself from a depressed, overweight young man with no future into a U.S. Armed Forces icon and one of the world's top endurance athletes. The only man in history to complete elite training as a Navy SEAL, Army Ranger, and Air Force Tactical Air Controller, he went on to set records in numerous endurance events, inspiring Outside magazine to name him The Fittest (Real) Man in America. In this curse-word-free edition of Can't Hurt Me, he shares his astonishing life story and reveals that most of us tap into only 40% of our capabilities. Goggins calls this The 40% Rule, and his story illuminates a path that anyone can follow to push past pain, demolish fear, and reach their full potential.

Tips and motivation for older runners, including advice from marathon winners, world record holders, and more. Running brings joy and health benefits!but when legs get sore, joints feel achy, and old age creeps up, sometimes older runners need a little extra motivation to hit the road. In Running Past Fifty, lifelong runner Gail Waesche Kislewitz provides helpful tips from thirty-six runners aged fifty or older. Gathering time-tested recommendations, Kislewitz interviews some of the nation's greatest senior runners. Included are exclusive interviews with greats such as Ed Whitlock, who, at eighty-five, set an age-division world record of 3:56 in the marathon; Bill Rodgers, winner of four Boston Marathons and four New York City Marathons; George Hirsch, chairman of New York Road Runners; Olympian and author Jeff Galloway; world record holder Sid Howard; and women's running pioneer and advocate Kathrine Switzer. And legendary runners aren't the only ones running well into seniority. Kislewitz also offers motivational stories from regular runners who refuse to let their age slow them down!or stop them from competing.
