If you want a holiday that's hassle-free, virtually pre-paid, and that lets you see lots of places while only needing to pack and unpack once, then you should try a cruise. This best-selling book is the cruise industry bible: it gives you all the information you need to choose the right cruise for you. Meticulously updated every year by cruise expert Douglas Ward, it is divided into two main parts: the first helps you work out what you're looking for in a cruise holiday and how to find it; the lively text and colour photographs describe every aspect of life on board, including safety, the highs and lows of the cruise experience and how to save money. The second part contains unbiased reviews and fascinating detail of almost 300 ocean-going cruise vessels, and grades them on service, food, entertainment and facilities, using an internationally recognised ratings system.

In a world where beauty magazines promote 14-year-old models with poreless skin, impossibly long lashes, and dewy lips pouting over sparkling teeth, Paula Begoun is every woman's best friend. Don't Go to the Cosmetics Counter Without Me has sold over 700,000 copies since first published because it's honest and because it helps women find products that make them look great without spending a fortune. From drugstores and home shopping to department stores and catalogues, Begoun reviews all of the major cosmetic and skin-care lines, product by product (more than 10,000 products, in all). Regardless of the price tags, there are good and bad products in almost every line. With the turn of a page, readers can get concise reviews and fast answers in this completely revised and expanded edition. A user-friendly rating system lists several Canadian lines found on both sides of the border (Lush, M.A.C., Club Monaco) and two (Vichy and Marcelle) found only in Canada.
