people-eating spiders, and many more. But beware because not all of the protagonists in these stories get out alive.

Thirteen original tales that start out with normal kids and normal lives, then take you to dark places where fear dwells.

A collection of scary traditional tales from all over the world.

What is real and what is imaginary? Do evil creatures lurk in the shadows? Do demons attack the helpless? Are there such things as invisible men? For generations, storytellers have given substance to our worst fears. In Ask the Bones, master storytellers Arielle North Olson and Howard Schwartz retell a varied selection of the world's most frightening folktales. Be warned—these stories could scare you to death! Illustrated by David Linn. "These twenty-two stories provide a wide variety of supernatural happenings that won't disappoint the young horror acolyte." (The Horn Book, starred review)
