This book, written by an airline captain and aviation career counselor, is a compilation of articles on a variety of subjects ranging from the concrete mechanics of finding a flying job to the subtle nuances of attitude and personal presentation.

This report describes flight activity scheduled by commercial air carriers in the United States during Nov. 1964. It was prepared from an IBM tape containing records of all flights listed in the November 1-15, 1964 issue of the North American Edition of the Official Airline Guide. Flight activity is described in terms of airline, aircraft type, day of week, hour of day and patterns of flow. (Author).
