This is the autobiography of the 16th child born to the same mother and father. From the early age of three years to past the age of 91, she tells her life story. Having lived through the great depression, dust bowl days, four wars and the reign of 12 United States presidents, she suffered hunger, hardship, heartache, disappointments and scandals. But through hard work, determination and the grace of God, she achieved many feats that most undereducated, deprived and disgraced women only dream about. " Journey Without a Road Map " is truly a story worth telling.
