John Singer Sargents

approach to

watercolour was unconventional.

Disregarding late-

aesthetic standards
that called for

his confidently bold, dense strokes and loosely defined forms startled critics and fellow practitioners alike. One reviewer in England, where Sargent spent much of his adult life, called his work swagger watercolours. For Sargent, however, the watercolours were not so much about swagger as about a new way of thinking.

In watercolour as opposed to oils his vision became more personal and his works more interconnected.

Presenting nearly 100 works of art, this book is the first major publication of Sargents watercolours in twenty years. Each chapter

We are a product of nature. Every single cell of our body is made of, and

depends, on nature.
Our inner soul is heavily influenced by nature. We feel sad if the sun is not shining

feel pleasure when drawn to the wonder
of flowers and uplifted
by the song of birds.
We came from nature;
we are part of nature.
In short, we are Different religions and cultures, from all corners of the world, have honoured and worshipped nature in art, ritual and literature in their own unique ways. This book shows how we learn about our own human nature, our own sense of identity and how we fit into the larger scheme of life and spirit when we come to better understand how our human ancestors, through art, symbol and myth, expressed their relationship with the natural world.
